

Jackals in Italy (North-Western) January 2013

On 2th January 2013 a golden jackal was photo-trapped on the eastern slopes of the Mount Peller, in Val di Non, Province of Trento (North-Eastern Italy).

At the following link it is possible to read an official note of the PAT (Provincia Autonoma di Trento) on this record, the north-westernmost Italian datum on the expansion of this golden wild dog.
